CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The Desplaines street police raided a bare-knuckle prize-fight in full progress in an old barn near Sangamon and Madison streets about 2 o'clock this morning.

The fight was between Edward Hogan, of this city, and Tom Ward, of Chicingall, and Circingalls and Circingalls and Circingalls was admirably handled by Marting Circingalls.

be announced within a day or two, and when this question has been disposed of the work of construction will go on at once.

At least, this is what President Frederick Ullmann says.

He thinks that the War Department will see the original plans, which provided the construction of this city, and to dave been to a finish for a $250 purse.

Matters had gone as far as the fifth round, were billy Delaney, Jimmy Carroll, of Brockhop to the original plans, which provided the city of this city, and the constitution of the constit Refore the above event came off a rechot bout was put up by Panny McBride and Combonovan, bantam weights, who acsied in at 1114 pounds. They lought for a purse of $500, and in five of the liveliest round bonovan was put out clear by a hurricans shower of blows. These youngsters did as much real fighting in those five rounds as the oig uns did in the eighty.
